

Omeprazole Capsule

Strength	Composition	Therapeutic Segment		Class
20 mg	Omeprazole BP 20 mg (Enteric coated granules)	Anti-ulcerants		PPI
Indications: peptic ulcer disease and/or reflux esophagitis, symptomatic GERD, Helicobacter pylori-positive duodenal ulcer disease and H.pylori-positive gastric ulcer disease, Zollinger-Ellison syndrome, gastroduodenal ulceration associated with NSAIDS
Side-effects: headache, abdominal pain, nausea, diarrhea, vomiting, and flatulence.regurgitation, upper respiratory infection, constipation, dizziness, rash, asthenia, back pain, and cough
Precautions: Malignancy, hepatic impairment, Pregnancy, children, neonates
Contra-indications: Hypersensitivity, Lactation
Overdose: Treatment should be symptomatic and supportive.
How to take: Swallow the regular omeprazole capsules with water. Do not swallow the capsules with any other liquid				